

104TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 2254

To repeal the requirement that the Delegates to the Congress from Guam, the Virgin Islands, and American Samoa be elected by a separate ballot.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

AUGUST 4, 1995

Mr. UNDERWOOD (for himself, Mr. FRAZER, and Mr. FALEOMAVAEGA) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Resources

A BILL

To repeal the requirement that the Delegates to the Congress from Guam, the Virgin Islands, and American Samoa be elected by a separate ballot.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. REPEAL OF SEPARATE BALLOT REQUIREMENT.

4 (a) GUAM AND VIRGIN ISLANDS.—Section 2(a) of the
5 Act entitled “An Act to provide that the unincorporated
6 territories of Guam and the Virgin Islands shall each be
7 represented in Congress by a Delegate to the House of 8 Representatives” approved April 10, 1972 (48 U.S.C.

1 1712(a)), is amended by striking “, by separate ballot
2 and”.

3 (b) AMERICAN SAMOA.—Section 2(a) of the Act enti-
4 tled “An Act to provide that the Territory of American
5 Samoa be represented by a nonvoting Delegate to the
6 United States House of Representatives, and for other
7 purposes”, approved October 31, 1978 (48 U.S.C.
8 1732(a)), is amended by striking “, by separate ballot
9 and”.

○